

The house is a single-story structure with a light beige or cream-colored exterior. It has a green-painted roof with a gabled front. The front facade includes a large white-framed window with multiple panes and light-colored curtains. To the right of the window is a white door with a decorative glass panel featuring a floral or vine pattern. A small white wall-mounted light fixture is positioned above the door. The entrance is reached via a set of three concrete steps. The base of the house is finished with a brick or stone pattern.

A red wooden fence with a picket-style top runs along the front and left side of the property. The fence is made of vertical wooden slats. Behind the fence, there is a garden area with a gravel path, several potted plants, and a tall, narrow evergreen tree. A wooden bench is visible near the house.

In the background, a garage with a white door is visible. The garage has a dark roof and is situated next to another building with a textured exterior. A red wooden gate is partially visible on the right side of the driveway.

A small, dark green structure, possibly a well or a decorative garden feature, is located in the foreground on the left side. It has a peaked roof and a cylindrical base.
